

Aim & Objectives

❖ Aim:

To create sense of ownership among the farmers of Sardar Sarovar Project Command by disseminating information and development of skill to achieve higher water use efficiency following on approach of Participatory Irrigation Management.

❖ Objectives:

1. To train and organize the farmers for adoption of economic cropping sequence, crop diversification and improved agricultural practices to enhance crop production and productivity and there by income of the farmers.
2. Encourage the farmers to adopt improved soil, water and crop management practices such as to achieve higher irrigation water use efficiency.
3. To motivate and guide the farmers to adopt 'Rotational Water Supply' system for equitable distribution and 'Participatory Irrigation Management'.
4. To facilitate the farmers for availing benefits of various government schemes and programs under operation from time to time for the development of agriculture.